A Vast Literary Archive at Your Fingertips

Spanning over 100,000 entries, the IBSS presents an exhaustive and systematic catalog of publications related to Sikhism. From scholarly books and peer-reviewed articles to theses, dissertations, and even government documents, this bibliography encompasses a vast array of academic materials.

Delve into Diverse Perspectives

The IBSS transcends geographical boundaries, gathering works from all corners of the globe. This international scope ensures a broad and inclusive representation of scholarship on Sikhism, reflecting diverse perspectives and interpretations from renowned academics and scholars.

Uncover Hidden Gems and Forge New Connections

Whether you're a seasoned researcher or a novice explorer, the IBSS empowers you to discover publications that may have otherwise remained hidden. Its comprehensive subject indexing and meticulous cross-referencing system enables you to navigate the bibliography with ease, uncovering connections between different works and broadening your understanding of Sikh studies.

Harness the Power of Technology

Beyond its physical volumes, the IBSS is also accessible online through the Sikh Digital Library and Bibliography (SDLB). This online platform offers advanced search functionality, allowing you to refine your queries based on keywords, authors, publishers, and publication dates. With the SDLB, you can access the IBSS from anywhere, anytime, making your research more convenient and efficient than ever before.

Explore the Depths of Sikh History, Philosophy, and Culture

The IBSS covers a vast array of topics within Sikh studies, including:

- Sikh history, from its origins to the present day
- Sikh theology and philosophy, including the teachings of the Sikh Gurus and the Sikh scriptures
- Sikh culture and society, encompassing art, music, literature, and religious practices
- Sikh diaspora and its global impact
- Interfaith dialogue and the role of Sikhism in world religions

A Monumental Achievement in Sikh Scholarship

The International Bibliography of Sikh Studies is the culmination of decades of painstaking research and dedication by Dr. Surinder Singh Johar, a renowned Sikh scholar and bibliographer. His tireless efforts have created an invaluable resource that will continue to serve as a cornerstone of Sikh studies for generations to come.
