The Making of a Guardian Angel

Kate Hellmers was born into a military family in the small town of Ephrata, Pennsylvania. From a young age, she witnessed firsthand the sacrifices and bravery of those who served their country. Inspired by their example, she developed a deep sense of duty and a desire to make a difference in the world.

horrors of war up close and personal. However, amidst the chaos and violence, she also witnessed the resilience and bravery of her fellow Marines and the innocent civilians they were fighting to protect.

A Calling to Serve

Upon returning from Iraq, Kate was deeply affected by the experiences she had witnessed. She realized that she had a gift for helping others, especially those who were lost, vulnerable, or in danger.

In 2013, Kate founded Guardian Angel Services, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing protection, support, and advocacy for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and child abuse. As the organization's Executive Director, Kate has tirelessly worked to create a safe haven for those who need it most.
