Peter was diagnosed with stage 4 pancreatic cancer in 2016. He was given just months to live. But he refused to give up hope. He fought back against the cancer with everything he had.

Dr. Chan was Peter's oncologist. He was impressed by Peter's fighting spirit. He saw that Peter was a man who was determined to live life to the fullest, no matter what.

Dr. Chan and Peter began spending more and more time together. They talked about their lives, their families, and their hopes for the future. They laughed together, they cried together, and they supported each other through the tough times.

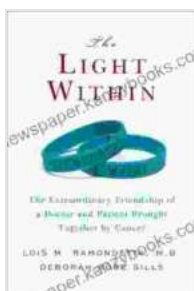

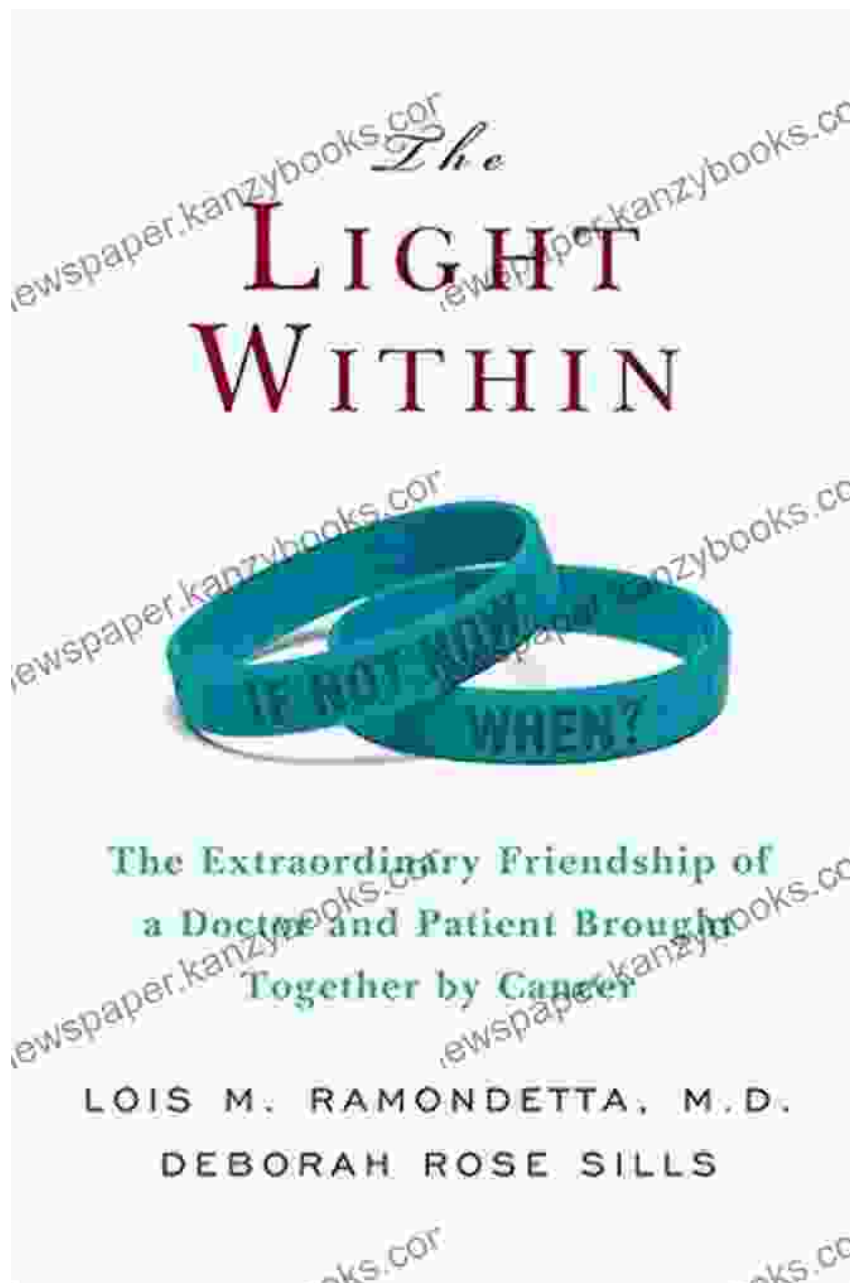

Over time, Dr. Chan and Peter became best friends. They were there for each other through thick and thin. They were a constant source of support for each other.

In 2018, Peter passed away from cancer. But his friendship with Dr. Chan lived on. Dr. Chan wrote a book about their friendship, titled "The Extraordinary Friendship of Doctor and Patient Brought Together by Cancer."

The book is a heartwarming and inspiring story about the power of friendship and the human spirit. It is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.

If you are looking for a book that will inspire you and give you hope, then I highly recommend "The Extraordinary Friendship of Doctor and Patient Brought Together by Cancer."
